

ANTENA 3 INFORMS THAT THE ASO GROUP, THE ORGANIZER OF THE TOUR DE FRANCE, ACQUIRES 49% OF UNIPUBLIC (VUELTA A ESPAÑA)

Through this agreement, Unipublic reinforces itself and incorporates the experience of ASO in the management of big cycling events

ASO (Tour de France) and Unipublic (Vuelta a España) will work together from now on in order to potentiate the development and the international presence of the Vuelta a España

The agreement guarantees a majority shareholding of Spanish capital in Unipublic

(5th June 2008)

The Amaury Sport Organisation Group (ASO), organizer of the Tour de France, has executed today an agreement with the Antena 3 Group in order to acquire a minority shareholding (49%) in Unipublic S.A.U., the company responsible for the management and organization of the Vuelta a España.

Through this agreement, Unipublic incorporates the broad experience of ASO in the management of big cycle events and guarantees a majority shareholding of Spanish capital (51%).

From now on, and after the agreement, ASO and Unipublic will join their efforts in order to speed up the development and the presence of the Vuelta a España at worldwide level, and to contribute to the strengthening of cycling.
